To whom it may concern

I object to this planning application. There aren't enough schools, doctors, road infrastructure for the amount of housing already existing in Thatcham and surrounding areas.

Also we are very lucky to have an area of natural beauty filled with wild animals and plants. This area cannot be used for building more houses. There are other sites around that are not areas of beauty and have access to major roads. More homework is needed on this preposterous application.

Kind regards

Helen McGowan
